Unique one-bedroom studio apartment with its own private entrance just off Kensington High Street

Addison Bridge Place, W14

£500 per week

A beautifully finished one-bedroom studio apartment with direct access to a shared garden. Having been architecturally designed, the accommodation is immaculate throughout and offers a bright and airy open plan kitchen/reception room with high ceilings, a good-sized double bedroom with excellent built in storage and ensuite shower room. Beautifully furnished and fully equipped, the studio further benefits from having its own private entrance, a weekly cleaning and laundry service, under floor heating, air-conditioning, plasma TV and entry phone system. In addition, the weekly rent includes all bills.

Addison Bridge Place is located just off Kensington High Street, moments from Kensington Olympia Overground and within a short walking distance to the District Line.
